Broad St. Church of Christ
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Chalk:

I have your good letter and appreciate it so much. I shall be happy to make plans to be there for the morning service on June 19th. I had hoped to hear you at that time; however I shall gladly concur with your letter.

We have just had our first study with a new family which has never attended, but who are unsettled religiously, and seemingly very sincere. One of our members had them over to his home and the study continued far beyond my hopes. We have an invitation from them to study in their home two weeks hence. He works alternate shifts and so we have to work our plans accordingly. Five in the family and we hope through much patient study and association to win them to Christ. Three small children.

I am very appreciative of your attitude towards work of this nature. I am sorry that you could not be with us this summer; however I understand how busy a preacher can be. By the way you must have overlooked that bulletin. If you have a mailing list, please, include my name. I find the weekly bulletins to be very serviceable in the work.

Sister Phillips and family will be very disappointed that you won't be able to come. You have a very great enthusiast there. She had hoped that you and family would spend the time in her home. They are very fine people.

I shall look forward with pleasure to meeting you and yours in June, so far as I see now. We shall come to Cookeville on Saturday the 18th.

In Christ
